Image Access Corp.

At Image Access, our mission is to deliver innovative digital transformation solutions. Our offerings enable organizations to increase automation levels and gain control over their document-driven processes.

WHO WE ARE

Image Access is a technology consulting firm hyper-focused on the intelligent automation of complex content processes. Our solutions allow customers to leverage emerging document understanding technologies to digitally transform. We have designed and developed ImageTrust, an industry leading intelligent capture solution, while building a strong partner community to address additional solution components. Decades of experience has granted us an understanding of diverse products and platforms, allowing us to transfer this knowledge of solution benefits and limitations transparently to our customers.

Image Access Corp.

WHY US

For over 35 years, the Image Access team has consistently focused on bringing innovation and automation to ensure continued value to our customers. Our customers rely on us for a consistent, consultative engagement driven by experience.

Experienced

Our experienced team of professionals has extensive knowledge of both legacy products and emerging AI technologies.

Consultative

We pride ourselves on bringing unbiased solutions that best serve our clients. This has made us not only a vendor, but a trusted partner for some of the world's largest corporations.

Consistent

Our team is more like a family! Our very low turnover rate means that when you call us, you get a friendly voice and folks that know YOUR system. This consistency saves our clients time and money.
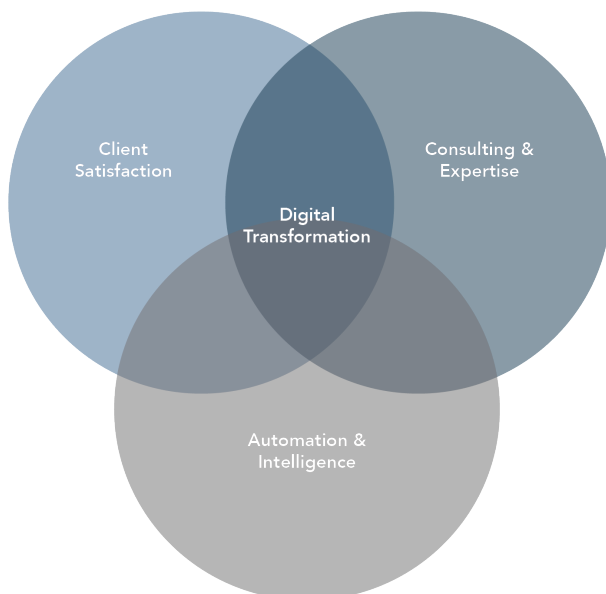

OUR TEAM

We pride ourselves on automating processes, but not people. Our team of subject matter experts will be there when you need them, whether it's to embark on a transformation journey, make a purchase, or ask questions – you'll be met with a smile.

Image Access maintains a set of core values that impact every customer interaction. Our creative team delivers solutions with purpose and passion, without the ego. We built our company on steady organic growth generated almost entirely from positive customer experiences. We look forward to being an extension of your team and having you join us on this journey.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

As your digital transformation consultants, Image Access takes a closely coordinated, collaborative strategy that leads to accelerated time to value for our clients. Our unbiased opinion and thorough analysis of solutions allows us to provide you with the best products and price in the industry.
